Mr. President : Order, order. That word by itself cannot be unparliamentary just as when you say "a man fell down senseless".

Mr. P. Kumaran Ezhuthassan (Vadakkancheri): I want to maintain the dignity of the House, more especially as it is presided over by an elected President of ours. Whether "senseless criticism" is an expression which can be used is the question.

Mr. President : Yes, I am giving the ruling. The Hon'ble Member will have the patience to hear me.

The Hon'ble Minister has explained that he meant it simply "without meaning". But when a word is used in relation to a remark made by an Hon'ble Member in the House of a Legislature, "senseless criticism" I think it is unparliamentary.

Mr. P. Govinda Menon (Minister for Food and Education): Sir, I withdraw it.

Mr. President : The question is whether Government be granted a sum of Rs. 39,70,697 under "42—Miscellaneous".

Mr. P. Kumaran Ezhuthssan (Vadakkancheri) : I oppose the demand and in doing so, I submit with all the seriousness that the occasion demands, and not descending to the levels to which a respectful friend of mine had been pleased to descend a few minutes ago.

Mr. President : The Hon'ble Member has opposed the demand. I am going to put the demand to vote.

Mr. P. Kumaran Ezhuthassan (Vadakkancheri): Sir, have I not got a right of speech on my motion opposing the demand.

Mr. President : Will the Hon'ble Member resume his seat ?

Under normal conditions, the Hon'ble Member would have had a right to speak, but I am bound to put the demand to vote at the exact time.

Demand put and carried.

Mr. P. Kumaran Ezhuthassan (Vadakkancheri) : A Poll Sir.
